ORDINANCE NO. 18-17

AN ORDINANCE ENACTING A HUMAN RIGHTS ORDINANCE FOR ST. JOSEPH COUNTY, INDIANA

IT IS HEREBY ORDAINED BY THE COUNTY COUNCIL OF ST. JOSEPH COUNTY, INDIANA, THAT:

SECTION 1.

Chapter 37: Human Rights Ordinance is added to Title III: Administration of the St. Joseph County Code. Title III, Chapter 37: Human Rights Ordinance reads as follows:

This Chapter shall be known as the St. Joseph County Human Rights Ordinance.

§ 37.01. — Purpose.

(a) It is the public policy of St. Joseph County to provide all citizens equal opportunity for education, employment, access to public conveniences and accommodations, and acquisition through purchase or rental of real property including, but not limited to, housing, and to eliminate segregation or separation based on race, religion, color, sex, disability, national origin, ancestry, sexual orientation or gender identity, and familial status in housing, since such segregation is an impediment to equal opportunity. Equal education and employment opportunities and equal access to and use of public accommodations and equal opportunity for acquisition of real property including but not limited to housing are hereby declared to be civil rights.

(b) The practice of denying these rights to properly qualified persons by reason of race, religion, color, sex, disability, national origin, ancestry, sexual orientation or gender identity, or familial status in the case of housing of such person is contrary to the principles of freedom and equal opportunity, and is contradictory to the objectives of the public policy of this County and shall be considered discriminatory practices. The promotion of equal opportunity without regard to race, religion, color, sex, disability, national origin, ancestry, sexual orientation or gender identity, or familial status in the case of housing, through reasonable methods is the purpose of this Chapter.

(e) It is also the public policy of this County to protect employers, labor organizations, employment agencies, property owners, real estate brokers, builders and lending institutions from unfounded charges of discrimination.
§ 37.02. – Prohibited Conduct.

(a) No person shall discriminate against any other person in education, employment, access to public conveniences and accommodations based on race, color, sex, disability, national origin, ancestry, sexual orientation or gender identity. Nor shall any person deny any other person equal opportunity for education, employment, access to public conveniences and accommodations based on race, religion, color, sex, disability, national origin, ancestry, sexual orientation or gender identity. Such discrimination or denial of equal opportunity shall be an unlawful practice.

(b) No person shall refuse to sell or to rent after the making of a bona fide offer; refuse to negotiate for the sale or rental or otherwise make unavailable or deny a dwelling; or otherwise discriminate against any person in the terms, conditions, privileges of sale or rental of a dwelling, or in providing services or facilities in connection with the sale or rental of a dwelling because of a person’s race, color, religion, sex, familial status, disability, national origin, sexual orientation or gender identity. Conduct in violation of this section shall be an unlawful practice.

(c) No person may coerce, intimidate, threaten or interfere with any other person:

(1) In the existence or enjoyment of any right granted or protected by this chapter; or

(2) Because the person has exercised or enjoyed, or has aided or encouraged another person in the exercise or enjoyment of, any right granted or protected by this chapter.

(d) No person shall commit any other discriminatory practices as defined in any other section of this Chapter.

(e) Protections in this Chapter against discriminatory practices with regard to sexual orientation, gender identity, familial status, or any other class which is not already protected under applicable state and/or federal law shall not apply to decisions of a person which is a religious society or order, association, organization, institution or related entity when such protections affect the definition, advancement of the mission(s), practice(s) or belief(s) of such religious society or order, association, organization, institution or related entity charged with the implementation of such decision or decisions, and no requirement of this Chapter shall compel any person to act in a manner contrary to that which has been granted specific protection by the United States Supreme Court in Boy Scouts of America and Monmouth Council, et al. v. Dale, 530 U.S. 640 (2000).

(f) The protections in this Chapter against discriminatory practices regarding sexual orientation or gender identity in employment shall not be construed to require that health care plans, insurance, pension, or similar additional benefits provided by employers or benefitting the spouses of employees be extended to non-married domestic partners of any employee.
