Sugar Camp Days 2018 Schedule of Events

Saturday, March 17 and Sunday, March 18, 2018

Ongoing Activities around the Sugar Bush

Native American sugar-making demonstration:

Sugar bush: 8:30am to 3pm

Observe the traditional Native American hot-stone method of cooking maple sap into sugar. See a display of traditional storage and cooking vessels, freshly cooked examples of Native American foods sweetened with maple sugar as well as a range of dehydrated storage foods.

Pioneer and Modern syrup making demonstrations:

Sugar bush: 8:30am to 3pm

See how syrup was made by the pioneers in the 1800s using cast iron kettles and sample some pioneer sugar camp foods. Visit the sugar house to see the modern method of syrup cooking using an evaporator pan heated with wood.

Blacksmith demonstration:

Sauk Trail Shelter in the sugar bush: 9am to 2pm (weather permitting) Watch the old-time skill of heating and shaping iron.

Maple kettle corn:

Outside the sugar house: 10am to 3pm (weather permitting)

Watch as this delicious snack is cooked over an open fire. Kettle corn is available for purchase.

Ice carving:

Outside the Glenn Bauer Shelter: 9am

Watch as blocks of ice are transformed into sparkling works of winter art!

Walking tours of the sugar bush:

10am, 11am, noon, 1pm and 2pm

Hear the story of how maple syrup might have been discovered, learn how to identify a maple tree, and find out how to tap and when. Naturalist-led tours begin from the Glenn Bauer Shelter and last about 30 minutes.

Pancake & sausage breakfast:

Provided by the New Carlisle Lions Club

Glenn Bauer Shelter: 8am to 1pm

Adults: $8; Children 6-11 years old: $4; Children 5 and under: free

Horse-drawn wagon rides:

9am to 2pm (weather permitting)

The wagon will run between the Glenn Bauer Shelter and the Sugar House every few minutes. Donations accepted!

Concessions:

Sauk Trail Shelter: 9am to 2pm

Maple sloppy joes and maple hot dogs, as well as other treats and beverages for sale (a fund-raiser by the Friends of Bendix Woods and Spicer Lake.)

Family Fun in the Studebaker Shelter
